Dear Mr. Bushner:

Thank you for inviting Deputy Director of CIA John McMahon to address the Denver and Tampa Bay Councils on Foreign Relations in 1986.

Mr. McMahon has asked me to extend his regrets. Unfortunately, his schedule has been overtaken by events and official duties have made it impossible for him to meet with your groups. I do hope that this has not caused an inconvenience for you. Mr. McMahon enjoyed his appearance before the Boston Committee on Foreign Relations in November of 1984 and was looking forward to meeting with the other area organizations.

We wish you every success.

Sincerely,

 George V. Lauder

The Honorable John N. McMahon

Office of the Deputy Director

Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. McMahon:

Winston Lord showed me a copy of your response of December 7 to his letter expressing appreciation for the highly successful discussion you led for the Boston Committee on Foreign Relations last November. I am sure that any of the 37 other Committees on Foreign Relations would be delighted to have an opportunity to meet with you, but I do not want to raise false hopes on their part. Therefore, I have consulted the officers of two Committees, and I would like to extend invitations to you to meet with the Denver and/or the Tampa Bay Area Committees next year. At present the Tampa group's schedule is open from mid-March to mid-April, and the Denver Committee's from mid-February through early June. The Committees can meet almost any weekday evening, Monday through Thursday, except a holiday or the evening before.

You would find the quality of members in these two groups very similar to the Boston Committee's, although the line of questions would probably be different. As you know, the meetings are held on a not-for-attribution basis.

If neither of these cities fit well into your prospective itinerary, but you would be traveling elsewhere, I would be very glad to know so that I could propose another Committee visit.

You are probably well aware that we are now without a president as Winston has resigned in order to prepare for his assignment to China if the Senate approves. This is a great loss to the Council but of course I was aware that we could not keep him here forever.

Sincerely,

Rolland Bushner

Winston:

Thank you for passing on those kind words from Boston. They were a fine group who certainly did have perceptive questions, indeed.

Getting out to the heartland and talking with such knowledgeable people who share an interest in foreign affairs really is a pleasure. I gain a great deal from these experiences and find them very reassuring.

I would be glad to meet with other Committees from time to time as scheduling permits.

Regards,

Dear Mr. McMahon:

Judging by the comments we have had from Boston, November 28 was a memorable day for members of the Boston Committee on Foreign Relations who were present at the meeting in your honor. I am told that you proved a superb speaker, very forthright, and as candid as possible in the circumstances. It is evident that your hearers gained new insights into the intelligence function as it relates to foreign policy, and some of the major issues facing the United States abroad.

I hope that the questions were of a high quality, and that you found the meeting worthwhile. If so, we would be very pleased if you could meet with another Committee from time to time as your travels permit. Meanwhile, we are most grateful that it proved possible for you to meet with the Boston Committee.

Sincerely,

DCI:

General Larry D. Welch, USAF, has invited you to be the guest speaker at the 544th Strategic Intelligence Wing's 1985 Dining-In at Offutt Air Force Base, Nebraska on Saturday evening, 26 October. The wing is celebrating its 35th anniversary and the theme is "The Evolution of Intelligence." Since the 544th is the principal intelligence production organization of Strategic Air Command (SAC), the audience will be made up entirely of military personnel. A Dining-In combines ceremony, tradition, and good fellowship in a formal military framework. If you accept this invitation and your schedule permits, you are also invited to tour Offutt's facilities.

Mr. McMahon spoke to the 544th in October, 1983. You may wish to defer the invitation to him, or to another senior officer.

Honorable William J. Casey

Dear Mr. Casey

It is my pleasure to invite you to be the guest speaker at the 544th Strategic Intelligence Wing's 1985 Dining-In here at Offutt Air Force Base on the evening of 26 October 1985. We will be celebrating the wing's 35th anniversary. The theme of this event will be "The Evolution of Intelligence." I believe it especially appropriate, in light of the intelligence capabilities that will reside at Offutt, that this occasion be commemorated in the special manner that your attendance would provide. Should your schedule permit, I would urge you to consider arriving in sufficient time to tour some of the facilities involved, as Mr. McMahon did when he was out to speak at the October 1983 Dining-In.

I look forward to seeing you this month.

Sincerely

LARRY D. WELCH
